“And ye shall know the truth,
And the truth shall make you free.”

John 8:32

“I looked, and lo, a lamb stood upon Mt Sion, and with him an hundred forty [and] four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads... These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.” Rev 14:1, 4

Gaza and Israel In The Last Days

Garrick Augustus. Originally Written November 17, 2012

“For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.” Zeph. 2: 4, 5.

What do the verbs “forsaken,” “desolation,” “driven out,” and “rooted up,” especially when joined with the phrase, “there shall be no inhabitant,” all have in common? You guessed it, the markings of a war, a terrible war, the formation of which leaves in its wake such scenes of catastrophe and bloodshed that entire cities are left without inhabitants, form the unleashing of its destructive fury! Below, we will examine these verses to see if they were fulfilled in ancient times, or if they are timed for the latter days, the times in which we live.

“On Monday, militants fired several rockets toward Eshkol in southern Israel. One hit a school that has been closed since the conflict began, the IDF said. Several more rockets fired at Ashkelon -- which has been repeatedly targeted by militants in recent days -- were intercepted by Israel's missile defense system [Iron dome], it said.” <http://www.cnn.com>

As believers in the Three Angel’s Messages, when we hear of earthquakes, hurricanes, tsunamis, tornadoes, famines, plagues among a range of other natural and man-made disasters, we echo the chant that “these are clear signs of the Coming of the Lord.” Truly, when we see movements of the Vatican, letters from the Pope, or international engagements with the Papacy, we also proclaim, “the man of sin is being revealed as the world wonders after the beast.” We are also conditioned to believe that these are central warning signs, and that the time of trouble is not far off, a time when we will need to run to the rocks and the mountains, in an effort to survive the punishing persecutions, we envision to come upon Christians in general, and Seventh-day Adventists in particular. But when we see wars and bloodshed in the Middle-East, especially relating to Israel and her neighbors, this confuses us. It causes us to act as though we do not know what this trumpet blast means, for theologically speaking, we have not been prepared to look into the existence of an Israel in the Last Days, a prophetic oversight which will cause our Revelation Seminars, and other teachings on latter-day prophecies much theological embarrassment, as the conclusions we make fall out of line with both history and reality. The test of time is the greatest legacy against error, and is a boon in favor of the whole truth, and so far, time is not in favor with many of our eschatological assumptions and proclamations!

Why am I writing about Gaza now? The answer is clear, Gaza and Israel have been the focal points of many world news coverage’s over the past sixty years, and although the Bible is pregnant with teachings on a Middle East conflict involving Israel, Gaza, Jerusalem, Syria, Egypt, and an host of other Muslim and non-Muslim powers, some from within, and others coming from outside that region, a conflict which will be the warning sign of the long expected “time of trouble” (Dan 12:1, 2), as well as the final signal of the cleansing of the Church (1 Pet, 4: 17), by Christ Himself (Mal. 3: 1-3), from all who seek not the complete robe of His Righteousness, yet our theologians have been very dismissive of these parts of the Holy Scriptures, denying their eminent fulfillment in the latter days, even going as far as to saying “these parts of the Bible will never be fulfilled, because the Jews’ rejection of Christ.” Theological ignorance notwithstanding, the Bible does teach the reality of a general Middle Eastern military campaign centered in Jerusalem, Israel. A military showdown in the Middle East is not one which can be easily contained or dismissed, as it will involve America’s strongest international ally (apart from Great Britain)—Israel, and whichever nation touches Israel, will, as it were, touch “the apple of America’s eye,” and will thus draw her (the USA) into full battle array in defense of Israel. The Muslims also have their international nation block which supports their cause, and their growing need for political statehood, and this block includes nations such as Russia, China, Iran, Turkey, Syria, and Jordan, to mention a few.

Prophecy does speak of a Gaza in the latter days, a political State of Israel, as well as a conflict between these two ideologies which will foment into the ultimate military fall of Israel and the United States, while they are engaged in a gigantic Middle Eastern battle. I can speak with certainty on this topic, because the Bible has been very clear as to its development and outcome, and it speaks even more clearly on these matters than it has spoken of the rise and fall of the two—horned beast in Revelation 13. Let us now hear from one who has written some 2,500 years ago, and prophesied of these very places calling them by their recognizable political names in the latter days with geographic specificity:

“Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired; Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD’S anger come upon you.” Zeph. 2: 1, 2.

Here the prophet speaks of an undesired, or shameless nation, one who is to marshal herself and “gather together,” an indication of her unifying herself both economically, militarily, ideologically and politically, and this gathering must occur “before” the day of YHWH’S anger comes upon the earth. Thus, sometime in the latter days, sometime before the great and dreadful day of the YHWH comes, a “nation” of shameless people will emerge to power. The fact that this nation is to “gather” together suggests that at the time when the prophecy meets its fulfillment, the people comprising this nation were scattered, hence the need to be gathered. Further, this nation is to “gather herself together,” rather than the LORD’S gathering her, thereby indicating that this “gathering together” is to meet a political objective and statehood, and not a theocratic government. Which nation could this be? The context is clear that this nation, resides in the Middle East, and has cities with such names as Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, and Ekron. While some of these names might not be readily familiar to our minds, we will shortly see that they are population centers in the modern-day State of Israel. Let me be clear, the need to be gathered, is strong indication that this nation was once scattered—thus another compelling reason to direct our attention to political Israel who has been “gathering together” her citizens from all quarters of the earth since she declared independence on May 14, 1948. Hence, we see the prophetic announcement of this nation-State as her citizens emerged from the various corners of the earth to be recognized by the United Nations in 1948 as the independent Nation we now know as the democratic State of Israel. And ever since her establishment in the middle of the 20th Century, Israel has been engaged in bloody wars with her Muslim and Arab neighbors. This struggle will never cease, and will foment into a Third great World War!

One would hardly be candid to suggest that Israel’s statehood has not been of Divine guidance. Consider the war of 1967, the six-day war, when the young State was attacked from her three sides: Jordan to the East, Syria in the North, and Egypt to her South. Though outgunned and out manned, in only six days, Israel routed her enemies so completely, that her borders more than quadrupled! Egypt lost the Sinai Delta and the entire Sinai desert including Gaza; Jordan lost the West Bank including Old (East) Jerusalem; and Syria lost the Golan Heights. Because of international negotiations to stave off the cold war, Egypt has signed a peace accord with Israel in return for the Sinai Delta and the greater Sinai desert—The Sinai Peninsula, up to the border of Gaza. Jordan has since signed a peace treaty with Israel in 1994, which has given greater autonomy for the Jordanian Palestinians in the West Bank to now seek for independence and Statehood. This has been a centerpiece of American and European diplomacy for nearly many decades now. Also, Syria and Israel have been negotiated a peace settlement, in which the greater part of the Golan, excluding a military “buffer zone,” has been handed over to Syrian rule in an effort to sweeten the deal for peaceful coexistence. While these negotiations provide temporary relief from a state of overt aggression, these nations are in the background working through other means—their surrogates—to bring down Israel’s military strength. There has been the PLO (Palestinian Liberation Organization), The Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas, Islamic Jihad, and Hezbollah, to mention a few of the more extreme gorilla organizations whose sole aim is to “drive Israel into the Mediterranean sea.”

The prophet continues: “Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD’S anger.” Zeph. 2: 3.

While on the one hand the Almighty speaks of this rejected, undesired, shameless nation, declaring that they would be gathered together, before the day of His wrath pours forth, He simultaneously, on the other hand, speaks of another nation, one simply known as the “meek of the earth,” beckoning them to seek His meekness, to seek His righteousness, that they may be “hid” when His “anger” pours forth. Who are “the meek”? A quick search of the Bible identifies them as the righteous:

- “The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.” Ps 25:9

- “But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.” Ps 37:11
- “When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.” Ps 76:9
- “The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.” Ps 147:6
- “For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.” Ps 149:4
- “Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.” Matt. 5:5
- “Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.” Matt. 11:29

From these Scriptures, we can clearly see that the “meek” of the earth shall inherit the kingdom, because they are followers of Him who is “meek and lowly in heart” giving rest to their weary souls and pilgrimage, hence “the meek” are Israelites indeed, in whom are no guile. (John 1: 47). So while on the one hand, the political nations will be engaged in a gigantic military war in the Middle East, the true followers of the Lamb, will, on the other hand, be taking on His likeness, and seeking more to be wrapped in the robe of His righteousness, His meekness, so they can be sealed, and as one with the Lamb, they shall be “hid” in the day of YHWH’S anger, because they have his Name written in their foreheads (Rev. 14:1).

“Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon left in ruins. At midday Ashdod will be emptied and Ekron uprooted. Woe to you who live by the sea, you Kerethite people; the word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines. He says, “I will destroy you, and none will be left.” Zeph. 2: 4, 5, NIV.

In unmistakable language, the Bible declares that the entire Mediterranean coast will be wasted with the ravages of war, to the extent that none of its wicked inhabitants will be left! The fact that this is a very densely populated part of the world, one whose population is experiencing rapidly increasing growth, further indicates that the days of her emptying with “no inhabitant” is yet future, which makes this teaching a message of present truth, meat in due season. Gaza, as described by the CIA is “slightly more than twice the size of Washington, DC,” with a total land area of 360 sq.-km, and boasts a population of 1,710,257 (July 2012 estimates), and has a population growth rate of 6th in the world! To set this in perspective, Gaza is 3.3% the size of Jamaica, and has a population 59% of Jamaica’s. This means that the need for food, housing and economic survival is increasingly high, as they all compete for the same diminishingly scarce set of resources—land, food, housing, cash.

The Bible, while depicting this area of war and bloodshed, lost no time in familiarizing our thoughts with the ancient land of promise, Palestine, thus it is here described as “Canaan, land of the Philistines,” in an effort to cause the mind of the reader to reflect on the warrior-like tribes of that region, and fast forwarding them to our times where the same spirit thrives. This land, friends, is not the heavenly Canaan, which all true Christians long for and will one day possess, but we are here learning of a latter-day Canaan in the Middle East, built on the ruins of those ancient cities. We are now to brace for the greatest of all global conflicts which is yet to be fought in the Middle East, with Jerusalem as its epicenter, and Israel’s allies and enemies as the forces in conflict. To this the Bible has further warned:

“The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it. In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.” Zech. 12: 1-4

Observe that in outlining this prophecy, the Creator has laid out His credentials as the One who “stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.” In other words, the inerrant YHWH is here speaking, and declares that He “will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.” A “siege” is the language of warfare. Right there in the Middle East, in Jerusalem, and the nations “round about” her, will be a cataclysmic battle, which will attract the attention of the rest of the military world, for the infallible One declares,

"all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it." It is often necessary to remind the reader that this is not the New Jerusalem after the millennium, but a latter-day Jerusalem which will be pummeled by her enemies before she is delivered by her Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Going back to Zephaniah, we read: "And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks. And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity." Zeph. 2: 6, 7.

As though the vision has changed scenery, we see the very "sea cost" which was once destroyed "without inhabitant," now inhabited, but with people of a different character. They are now inhabited by shepherds and their flocks. Think not that this is a return to agriculture, no indeed. This change of occupants, indicates a change of heart, a changed character, that the true future dwellers of this land—Israelites indeed, will be the "meek of earth." Now, this might appear to some, who are stuck on ignoring the prophecies, as fanciful Evangelical teachings, but to those who believe in "every word" which proceeds from the mouth of YHWH, this is present truth—meat in due season. We are living in a changing world, with changing seasons, but there is more change to come, and in the Middle East which has been ravaged by the terror or wars, the Prince of Peace is about to reckon with her, and make Jerusalem the center of the everlasting gospel once again, before probation closes. Do realize this, that it is the United States who will lead the world in making an image to the beast, and during those terrible times of trouble and persecution, the headquarters of the gospel will no longer reside in the USA, or for that matter, in the domains of the two-horned beast's or her allies, but rather it will be relocated by the Creator Himself, to the land that he has chosen and forever placed His name there, thus, "Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there" (1Ki. 11: 36), is a repeated phrase throughout the Scriptures. Over and again He says: "Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever." 2Ki 21:7.

Have you ever considered why there are only two Jerusalem's in the entire Universe? There is a Jerusalem on earth, which is in bondage with her children, until now, and there is the New Jerusalem in heaven above, and one day both Jerusalem's will kiss. Where now there exists historic, or "old" Jerusalem, will, after the millennium, reside the metropolis of the New earth, and thus of the whole Universe, the very throne of the eternal Majesty of Heaven, YHWH Himself. Why? Because Jerusalem is the place where His name dwells forever. The very name Yahrushalayim, Yerushalayim, [Jerusalem], means "city of peace." In spite of its peaceful name, Jerusalem has been everything but peaceful! But those days are coming to an end. Here is what the Bible says:

"But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem." Micah 4: 1, 2.

Here Micah, in unmistakable language speaks of "the last days" and declares that the gospel will emanate from that place, during a time when sinners can be saved, for said he, "all peoples shall flow unto it." "And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth." When "the law goes forth," it will be under the auspices of the Loud Cry of the Third Angel's message, when a people who keeps the commandments of YHWH and possess the faith of Messiah, shall preach the everlasting gospel of the kingdom of righteousness as a witness unto all nations before the end shall come.

For many years, our Adventist theologians have held that "old Jerusalem will never again be rebuilt," citing support from Early Writings, pp. 74-76. In recent years, however, in light of the fact that Israel has become a nation, an event which was not seen in any of the visions of Sister White's, the White Estate has been placed in the awkward position of apologists, and have since written a seventeen page document entitled "The Gathering of Israel, A Historical Study of Early Writings, pp. 74-76," in which they explain that Mrs. White was not suggesting that Jerusalem would not ever again be build up, but that the purposes of the Zionists of the mid-18th century (her times) would not be realized, a view which held that during the millennium, there would be a peaceful reign of Christ on earth, and that the gospel would be preached to all nations, and Jerusalem would then be the center of the gospel. This view Ellen White opposed, and spoke out against. Specifically, they conclude:

“But the Seventh-day Adventist doctrine of the millennium precluded accepting the age-to-come views: With all the redeemed in heaven and no human being left alive on the earth, there is simply no room for either probation after the Second Advent or a ‘Judaizing’ millennial kingdom on earth.

“Like the Millerite ‘anti-Judaizing’ view, the Seventh-day Adventist belief had nothing to do with the Jews or with their religion or national status. It opposed one specific Christian prophetic interpretation, namely: the application of certain prophecies to an expected gathering and conversion of the Jews, and to their place in a ‘Davidic’ kingdom on earth during the millennium. (An opinion for or against the ‘Judaizing’ Literalist interpretation of the prophecies no more makes one pro-Israel or anti-Jewish than does the acceptance or rejection of the British-Israel claim make one pro-or anti-British.)—Julia Neuffer, Former Assistant Book Editor, Review and Herald Publishing Association. [Emphasis mine.], Ibid.

To clear matters in the reader’s mind, let me repeat, the prophecies nowhere teach a millennial reign of peace on earth, but that the saved will reign with Christ for 1,000 years in the Holy City above—in heaven. What it does teach, however, with great lucidity, is that the gospel work on earth will be completed only when earthly Jerusalem becomes the headquarters of the everlasting gospel, before Christ’s Second Coming. Here is the prophet Joel:

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.” Joel 2: 28-32.

We have long been told by our theological ancestors that there will be a final outpouring of God’s Holy Spirit, far exceeding the manifestation realized on the Day of Pentecost (Acts. 2), which event is here partially described. What we were not told, however, is that the Middle East will be included in this final shower of grace on the waiting church of God. “For,” says the prophet, “in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.” This call on Zion and Jerusalem, in connection with the “remnant,” clearly bespeaks the final evangelical thrust of the 144,000 (the true remnant), earth’s final evangelists, as they make the final push on the battlefield of sin, to warn a dying world of our loving Saviour’s return, to bring an end to sin, and usher in everlasting righteousness. Regarding the promises given in Joel, Ellen White also provides insights, declaring:

“In immediate connection with the scenes of the great day of God, the Lord by the prophet Joel has promised a special manifestation of His Spirit. Joel 2:28. This prophecy received a partial fulfillment in the outpouring of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost; but it will reach its full accomplishment in the manifestation of divine grace which will attend the closing work of the gospel.” The Great Controversy, p. X (Introduction)

Let’s realize that the “partial fulfillment” of Joel’s prophecies are to meet their consummate fulfillment in “the closing work of the gospel,” the Loud Cry of the Third Angel. That additional light and power will attend the Third Angel’s message, is evidenced in Rev. 18:1, where another angel is commissioned to unite his voice with that of the three angels’, lending power and force to their messages, by calling a people out of Babylon, to the true worship of the One and only Majesty of the Universe, YHWH Himself. “The angel who unites in the proclamation of the third angel’s message is to lighten the whole earth with his glory. A work of world-wide extent and unwonted power is here foretold...The work will be similar to that of the Day of Pentecost. As the ‘former rain’ was given, in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at the opening of the gospel, to cause the upspringing of the precious seed, so the ‘latter rain’ will be given at its close for the ripening of the harvest.

“The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening. The prophecies which were fulfilled in the outpouring of the former rain at the opening of the gospel are again to be fulfilled in the latter rain at its close. Here are ‘the times of refreshing’ to which the apostle Peter looked forward when he said: ‘Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; and He shall send Jesus.’ Acts 3:19, 20.

“Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works, with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Revelation 13:13. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand.” The Great Controversy, pp. 611, 612.

The First Exodus and Jerusalem

When Israel left Egypt in the first exodus, Palestine was filled with a terror-dealing warlike people, and it has not changed much even after three millennia, but things are about to change for the better, however, it will get worse before it gets better. The worst is that the last world war will be fought in that place, and the USA and her allies will suffer a stunning military defeat. This fact is more directly stated in the prophecies of Daniel:

“And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” Dan. 11: 45 – 12:1

The power here identified as “he,” is the “king of the North,” the United States and her allies, including her religious ally—the Papacy. They will seek to make Jerusalem an extension of their headquarters by planting “the tabernacles” of their palace “in the glorious holy mountain,” Jerusalem, but will soon realize that the coalition which aided them in this take-over is no longer standing in their favor, and as the coalition breaks without hands, through direct divine intervention, the once great military engine, and the floating armada of the seas will suffer her most humiliating military defeat. And this the Majesty of heaven will do in order to save both groups of belligerents, for they will finally see that were it not for divine intervention, the coalition could not have been broken, much less the Muslim and Arab nations stand as victors. I cannot say exactly the circumstance which will lead to the breaking of the coalition, but here is what the Bible does teach regarding the demise of the King of the North, under his prophetic title, Assyria:

“Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.” Isa. 30: 27-31

“Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.” Isa. 31: 6-9.

As clear as language can describe, we see the allied Assyrian power of the last days being crushed “through the voice of YHWH,” and that further he will not be humiliated by the sword of a “mighty” nation nor that of a “mean” nation, but only through the “voice” of Michael, when he stands up. Thus, “Assyria will fall by a sword that is not of man; a sword, not of mortals, will devour them.” Isa. 31: 8 NIV.

In Dan. 12, we also saw that while Assyria, under the title of “the King of the North,” is being humiliated with no one coming to his aid (Dan 11:45), that Michael simultaneously stands up and delivers his people, those whose names are found written in the Lamb’s book of life. What a wonderful moment that will be!

This standing up of the Prince of Peace, is not at His Second Advent, but sometime prior thereto, a time when the everlasting gospel is being preached and people can be saved, the time further known as the Mark of the Beast system. It makes perfect sense that the Deliverer of Saints intervenes in the affairs of earth at such a critical time, for Special Note: Why is the U.S. included as part of the “King of the North”? Because the Papacy now (unlike in the past) has no military of her own, she depends on the military strength of the United States and her allies to enforce her dogmas. The U.S. military and allied nations (in silence as a lamb) are the right arm of Vatican’s military might. They will eventually enforce the decrees of Apostate Protestantism in their enacting the prophetic “image of the beast” system for the control of the masses, and the persecution the true worshipers of YHWH.

at that time there shall be a time of trouble, one in which His waiting remnant cannot buy or sell, except they subscribe to the despotic system engendered by the two-horned beast, a global religio-politico-economic system which restricts the liberty of conscience, and dictates how and whom to worship. It is for this reason that we see the great multitude of saints being saved (delivered) during the Image of the Beast system. Thus the prophet declares: "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number...These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Rev. 7: 9, 14. As on the day of Pentecost, the 120 disciples received the former rain of power and proclaimed the eternal gospel under the anointing of the Holy Spirit wherein some three thousand plus souls per day were saved, (a great multitude), similarly, on the day of Pentecost to come, during the times of the latter rain, the divine Christ will abundantly pour out His Holy Spirit in power on his remnant—the 144,000, who will in turn preach the everlasting gospel under His special anointing, and gather in a great multitude of believers in the latter days and closing hours of earth's probation.

The Faithful and Wise Servant

So, the saber rattling of war in the Middle East is to be taken seriously, because they are closely linked with the escalation of the Mark of the Beast system, and the closing work of the Third Angel's message in the Loud Cry. The call is now being delivered to "seek meekness" all ye meek of the earth, that we may be hid (delivered) in the day of YHWH'S anger. Further, Daniel confirms that only those whose names are found written in Michael's Book of Life will be delivered. The greatest urgency at this moment is that we purify our characters through the indwelling Christ, that our names may be retained in the Lamb's book of life. There is a latter-day fulfillment of the covenant promises given to ancient Israel, and they will be fulfilled through the goodly remnant in the last days of this earth's history. Due to time and space limitations, I will encourage each reader to take a fresh look into the two classes of servants (Matt. 24: 45-51), and the two classes of virgins (Matt. 25: 1-13), and learn the parable of the fig tree, for the time is at hand.

"The lord of that [foolish] servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Matt. 24: 50, 51.

Note carefully that this coming of the Master to the "servant" is his coming in judgment to His church (1 Pet. 4:17), and not at His Second Advent. This coming, therefore, finds believers unprepared, because they were "not aware of" the Master's visitation, due to their not having partaken of the "meat in due season"—present truth, served by the "faithful and wise servant." That the Lord will come to His church in judgment, is not a silent thought in the Scriptures:

"Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness." Mal. 3:1-3.

Ellen White On The Rebuilding of Jerusalem

Let's now contrast Ellen White's historic statement with conditions presently unfolding on the grounds of Jerusalem, Israel.

Given the reality on the ground, that general construction has been going on in "Old Jerusalem" (or "Arab" East Jerusalem), we can now choose to either stick our heads in the sand, so to speak, and pretend that this is not happening, or wake up to the fact that it is occurring differently than our Denominational theologians have predicted, and be alarmed at the reality that they are acting like blind leaders of the blind, and have thus far lead us down a dead-ended prophetic road! I suspect that after the election of the next pope, some web pages will be revised, or removed, and lecture series on Revelation updated to stop the strong headwinds of "false prophecy" from blowing in our direction. When as a people, we realize that Old Jerusalem has been and continues to be built up, then statements such as Early Writings p, 76 will not confuse and confound us, but will instead lead us to allow the "context" to drive the author's conclusion, now that she is dead. The context, in this case shows an immediate movement of Zionism to establish Jerusalem as the center of the gospel in the early to mid-19th century, of which event Ellen White wrote. Lacking this background, many have ignorantly used her works to countermand the clear prophecies which do positively teach the restoration of Jerusalem, inhabited by "the meek of the earth"—the true Israel of God, in the latter days of this earth's history, prior to the Second Advent of Christ! (Attend our Revelation Seminar for more on this and other related topics).

Personally, I am quite confident that this is a very embarrassing statement for our church to confront, given the history-making declaration of the State of Israel's emergence exactly one hundred years after Ellen White confidently campaign in a seventeen-page apologetic, in which they try to sanitize this vision of Ellen White's and restore credibility to the purported inerrancy of her writings. No other statement of Mrs. White's has warranted such historic research and verbose assessment than the one at hand, and for good reason, it shows that our church leaders are not stated that she "saw that Old Jerusalem never would be built up." Once ago our Church leaders were quite proud of this "proof statement" from our prophet, and would readily whip it out to "disprove" the so-called erroneous teachings concerning the divine restoration of Israel—the true—to the Promised Land. But with history, prophecy and reality not in her favor, our church leaders have launched a face-saving being guided by the Holy Scriptures in the promulgation of certain doctrines, but are wholly leaning on statements from the pen of Ellen White to establish such teachings, without even giving credence to the historical setting in which her statements were made. I have shown above that the context of this statement was a march against Zionism, and not a prediction that "the more sure word of prophecy," will fail!

Health Wave Healthy Nugget

Food #1 that HARMS your brain: Fructose

In a 2012 UCLA study published in the Journal of Physiology, researchers found th. at a diet high in fructose over time can damage your memory and learning ability.

Beyond the harm to your brain, it's well known in the research world that a high fructose diet can also cause insulin resistance in your body over time, and possibly lead to type-2 diabetes and extra body fat. If that's not enough, a high fructose diet also detrimentally affects your triglyceride levels in your blood as well as small dense LDL particles that cause plaque in your arteries.

So what we have here is high-fructose intake = impaired memory and learning in your brain, increased risk of diabetes, and increased risk of heart disease. Oh, and we forgot to mention extra belly fat too... Yum - who wants another can of soda pop or a large bowl of corn syrup sweetened ice cream!

The average person eating a modern western diet of processed food consumes a LARGE quantity of fructose without even thinking about it from all of the soft drinks (high fructose corn syrup typically), sweetened juice drinks, orange juice, processed junk foods such as cakes and candies, as well as the HFCS that's added to store-bought salad dressings, breads and cereals, and even condiments like ketchup.

Note that many sports drinks, even though marketed as "healthy", can have large amounts of corn syrup or even crystalline fructose as their main sweetener. These sports drinks can be equally as bad as a soda for your body and your brain. Don't be fooled by the clever marketing showing pictures of pro athletes guzzling this stuff.

Also note that agave syrup (aka, agave nectar) which is marketed as a "healthy" sweetener as well is one of the most concentrated forms of processed fructose in sweeteners as well. I personally stay away from agave sweeteners as much as possible unless the amounts are very small.

All of these fructose-laden foods and drinks are easy to avoid though if you choose to eat consciously... for example, make homemade salad dressings from your favorite olive oil and vinegar with added spices, or choose to drink unsweetened iced tea with lemon instead of sweetened drinks or juices. If you use a lot of ketchup, try to reduce the quantity by mixing with mustard or hot sauce, which typically don't contain HFCS sweetener in any significant quantities.

Last thing to note about fructose... Yes, natural whole fruits do contain fructose, but generally contain MUCH smaller quantities of fructose than you would consume in a sweetened juice drink, soft drink or sweetened junk foods. Also, the phytonutrients, antioxidants, and fiber that's contained in most whole fruits counteracts any negative effects of fructose. I personally try to keep fruit intake to no more than 1-2 pieces a day due to the sugar and fructose content of larger amounts of fruit.

Here's a trick: Did you know that limes and lemons contain virtually zero fructose, and only 3-4 grams of total carbs in a whole lemon or lime, whereas a typical orange contains 6 grams of fructose and 25 grams of total sugar per fruit. I squeeze lemons and limes daily into either water or teas for a healthy flavorful drink. Fresh lemon juice has even been shown to control blood sugar response from a meal...another bonus! Fresh lemon juice has even been shown to control blood sugar response from a meal...another great bonus for your good heal! <http://www.truthaboutabs.com> Ω

Creamy Cauliflower Soup

- 1-2 teaspoons extra-virgin olive oil (for oil-free cooking use 1/4 cup vegetable broth)
- 1 medium-large onion, coarsely chopped
- 1-2 cloves garlic or shallots, chopped
- 1 medium-large head of cauliflower, washed and chopped
- 6 cups vegetable broth
- 1 cup cashews
- Add to taste: Lemon juice, maple syrup or other sweetener, nutritional yeast, Earth Balance or other non-hydrogenated vegan butter, cinnamon
- Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- Garnish with nutmeg and chives, optional

Heat olive oil in a large pot. Add onion and garlic or shallots and cook for 3 minutes or until onions are translucent. Add cauliflower and cook 5 minutes while the cauliflower browns a little. Add vegetable broth and cook 15 minutes or until cauliflower is tender. Bring back to a boil, then cover, and lower heat to a simmer. Cook until cauliflower is tender. Blend cashews with soup in a blender or Vitamix until smooth, in batches if necessary. Pour soup back into the pot to keep warm. Add lemon juice, sweetener, nutritional yeast, Earth Balance (optional), cinnamon, salt, all to taste. Ladle into soup bowls and garnish with nutmeg and chives.

Alonzo T Jones

Taken from: "Back Page" The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, p. 532. August 16, 1898 ATJ, ARSH 532.5}

DO not spend your time brooding over sins that are past. Be thankful that they are past; but do not call them back to the present, and look at them in a way to produce despondency or discouragement. If your past sins have been forgiven, pardoned, they should never be recalled, unless it be in the form of a fact in the history of God's dealings with you to excite your gratitude and praise. It is bad enough that you ever sinned and contracted guilt; why should you, then, make it worse by dwelling upon your sin in a melancholy state of mind?

IN the perilous times of the these last days, when men have a form of godliness and deny the power thereof, efforts are being made to force religion upon all, from the children in the school, up to the men who sit in our legislative halls. In all these efforts there is a compromise between truth and error. The tendency is to lower the standard of piety so that it will be so near the world's standard that it will be popular and easy to be a Christian.

Temperance principles are to be so modified that people can be good temperance people and indulge occasionally, if they are only educated to govern themselves so they will not become intoxicated. There is now on foot an effort to have temperance instruction in our public schools that will teach "the pupils to use alcoholic drinks reasonably." But there is no way to use these alcoholic poisons reasonably. Our youth need to be educated to know that the true principles of health entirely discard the use of these poisons: that the very tasting of them is unreasonable.

Let us have the principle of true temperance, which entirely abstains from everything that has a tendency to tear down the system, and makes a proper use of those things that will build up the human organization. Let us have a religion that will spurn sin of every form, and surrender the life to the leadings of the Holy Spirit.

"SELF-MASTER is the basis of sanity." Then how important it is that we have a complete mastery over self. This is true temperance. If we know for what purpose we are created, and live to fill that station in life to which we are called, we need to be well balanced. To have a well-balanced mind, and to keep it so indicates that we have power over every faculty, and have a complete mastery over self. This can not be without a strong mind. This we can have by having the "mind of Christ." Ω

Special Prayer and Gift Request

This ministry is called to announce the truth of the King with a distinctive emphasis on Righteousness by Faith in Jesus Christ (Y'shuah the Messiah). We are calling on all Present Truth believers who agree with us to pray for the following realities.

- ✓ The Audio/Visual Ministry *
- ✓ The Publishing Ministry
- ✓ *Internet Ministry
- ✓ Evangelistic Outreach with our message of Revival and Reformation.

We are falling behind in our mission for lack of funds. We need to be producing quality DVD's and CD's that can easily be distributed to those interested in learning about the Kingdom and Christ our King. The time has come for us to sacrifice as never before, before it is too late, only then to cry out in agony as we see that which could have been used for God's good confiscated and used against us, and his cause of Truth on earth. Camera's and media recording equipment are cheap when we consider the souls this type of media can reach, while we still live in a day that it is possible to produce and share such treasures of truth. Search your hearts and consider partnering with us in spreading the Gospel of the Kingdom today. Ω

2013 Festivals

Heralds of the 'King' Ministries has decided not to meet for Passover as a group this Spring, and we encourage all groups to hold meetings in their locality and invite others to experience Pesach, however all roads will lead to Florida for Tabernacles, and we encourage all to be ready to join with us for that joyous occasion. Start your planning from today!

We are making the announcement now, so please make plans to fellowship with us this coming October for

Ellen G White (7T pg. 68)

"The life of the true believer reveals an indwelling Saviour. The follower of Jesus is Christlike in spirit and in temper. Like Christ, he is meek and humble. His faith works by love and purifies the soul. His whole life is a testimony to the power of the grace of Christ. The pure doctrines of the gospel never degrade the receiver, never make him coarse, or rough, or uncourteous. The gospel refines, ennobles, and elevates, sanctifying the judgment and influencing the whole life."

Special Editorial Comment:

The Pope's Resignation

"And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, [and] the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space." Rev: 17:10

There has been a theory believed by many Seventh-day Adventists and other Protestant groups, that this verse is pointing to the idea of there being 7 popes since 1929 and that the 7th will be the last pope of human descent; then it is that Satan himself would come to impersonate Christ as the 8th Pope. Pope Benedict XVI is the 7th Pope, and the new Pope will be the 8th. If he is not Satan himself, then this error must be forever silenced. In light of Pope Benedict XVI's resignation, how are Theologians coping with the failure of yet another of their prophetic theories? Time alone will tell, however, we truly hope that they will act like honest men, declaring they "know not the Scriptures nor the power of the Almighty."

In March the Catholic Conclave will meet to elect a new Pope, the 8th. It is entirely possible, and yea very likely, that while there is the first black President in the United States White House, there will be a corresponding first black pope presiding at the Holy Sea. And most interesting of all is the fact that the so-called "prophecy" of the Roman Catholic priest St. Malachy, dating back to the 12th century touching the election of popes, has been spot-on correct in the successive 111 popes, including the present/outgoing one (Benedict XVI). By this prophecy, the next Pope will be "Peter the Roman." And wouldn't you know it that there is such as candidate in the pool of possible Papal contenders? His name: Peter Turkson, a black Cardinal from Ghana, West Africa! Read more here: <http://www.clevelandleader.com>. Whatever a Cardinal's name, when he becomes pope, he takes to himself his pontifical title. Many are expecting this new pope to wear the Petrus Romanus or some variant of this pontifical title. The election of the next pope's has taken on media sensation similar the election of the next American President, and the front runner pick is, of course Mr. Turkson.

"(Reuters) - Pope Benedict's decision to live in the Vatican after he resigns will provide him with security and privacy. It will also offer legal protection from any attempt to prosecute him in connection with sexual abuse cases around the world, Church sources and legal experts say.

"His continued presence in the Vatican is necessary, otherwise he might be defenseless. He wouldn't have his immunity, his prerogatives, his security, if he is anywhere else," said one Vatican official, speaking on condition of anonymity. "It is absolutely necessary" that he stays in the Vatican, said the source, adding that Benedict should have a "dignified existence" in his remaining years."—<http://www.reuters.com>

Here is the statement of Malachy's "prophetic" declaration: "In the final persecution of the Holy Roman Church there will reign Peter the Roman, who will feed his flock amid many tribulations, after which the seven-hilled city will be destroyed and the dreadful Judge will judge the people. The End."

Know this too, that the House of Cardinals who will conclave to elect the next pope are also very aware of St. Malachy's "prophecy," and have, and will continue using it to their own self-fulfilling ends! If Malachy were of another religious background, say Jewish or Christian, his prophecies might have been more credible, but being a Catholic, appears most self-serving to the ambitions of the same Church, and amounts to malarkey, rather than prophetic pronouncements! But what says the Holy Scriptures, the "more sure word of prophecy?"

The Woman Sitting On the Heads

Said the angel: "The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth." (Rev. 17:9.) We will later (Revelation Seminar) prove that the heads represent the present day apostate Christendom, They are called "mountains" (denominations), seven in number, meaning all. As the prostitute sits on all seven, the symbol with unmistakable evidence reveals that so-called Christendom (apostate Protestantism) will submit itself to be governed by one head, of which the woman is a symbol. (See "The Great Controversy," page 588.)

Preliminary to that miracle working power, Protestantism, Catholicism and Spiritualism will have grasped each other's hand by means of a church federation. The difference of opinion in doctrinal points will be considered of no vital importance to salvation. They will see in that apparently innocent union a great movement for the settlement of differences as well as for the conversion of the world. At the appearance of the false prophet, and of Satan himself, their expectations would be realized, and the ushering in of the long expected millennial time of peace shall be proclaimed to be at hand. Thus on the surface it will bear evidence that the world's crises are about to end. But as God's people have been warned of it all, they refuse to worship the image of the beast, which is a false international religion, and will be charged as rebellious, disturbers of the peace, and trouble makers. This will bring the great persecution of Revelation 12:17.

To them it will be said: "Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" As the saints answer them in the manner of the prophet Elijah: "Nay but... in that ye have forsaken the commandment of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalam," it will incur the displeasure of the wicked and cause them to enrage against the innocent.

The Woman Sitting On the Beast

While the Revelator saw in vision the beast who bears the number 666, and the false prophet enforcing a false religion by law and miracles within the borders of the government represented by the two-horned beast, he was shown another interesting sight: "And I saw," he says, "a woman sit upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication." (Rev. 17:3, 4.) This symbol reveals that after the woman had sat on the "heads" (united the churches) she also succeeded to sit on the beast. The beast is a symbol of the entire present world – both civil (ten horns) and religious (seven heads). As the woman sitting on the heads denotes union of churches, just so, sitting on the beast represents internationally the church and the state governed by the same head (woman). Therefore, an international system of religion and a combination of church and state. In such a system the great men of earth will see a vision of settling the troubles of the world, welding the people and the nations into a world-wide brotherhood, fulfilling by a medium of religion. "For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them,... and they shall not escape." 1 Thess. 5:3. Though their intention is to reduce crime as well as wars, their hope will be in vain.

Such interesting times in which we live (while the White House is advancing the cause of homosexuality in America and across the world, the Papacy is being exposed as the "mother" of homosexuality, streaming from the Vatican to the Convent), but more than this, it is time to put away man-made doctrines and speculations about the end times, follow Christ through the teachings of His revealed Truth.

HKM will be conducting a multi-media Revelation Seminar beginning March 9th, to establish confidence in the prophecies and Certainty in God's prophetic Word. Much more depth will then be uncovered on Daniel, Revelation and the Prophets then have been tone heretofore. Please make plans to join us, beginning March 9th (See our Conference Call section) ●

Do You Know of The Hidden Message of 1888?
Many of us are aware the Lord in his great mercy sent a most precious message to His church in 1888, entitled Righteousness By Faith, which was designed to present Christ, the uplifted Saviour, to the world. It was the Third Angel's Message in verity. What is not so well known, however, is the fact that the Law in Galatians debate involved more than just a casual discussion between the Ten Commandments versus the so-called Ceremonial law. The real truth of the matter is that the Holy One of Israel was opening the understanding of His Torah, with its attendant festivals, so that as a church we could "proclaim the Sabbath more fully," and understand the importance of the infant kingdom of glory. But fiendish hands, under the black robe of theological guardians, calculated to keep the people from the sprinklings of the "latter rain," interposed between the people and the light, and the heavenly dew was shuttered for a while. To learn more about this historical development, as well as an appreciation for the YHWH's "appointed times," visit Bible Explorations' Website: http://bibleexplorations.com/shop/Exposing\_the\_Skeleton\_in\_the\_SDA\_Closet\_of\_1888.pdf
